EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

Dear Aspirant,

I welcome you on behalf of the whole institute and thank you for showing your interest in us.

For years we have been educating young men and women who entered its community and attained their transformation into responsible citizens and leaders of corporations. By joining us, you are embarking on an education system that is meant to be transformative – academically, socially, and personally. “Excellence and Values” are our guiding principles which are reflected in every activity of the Institute.

Our Handbook plays a bigger role in many competitive and government exams. It holds the power of making or breaking your chance of success. Therefore, the candidates should cover Current Affairs thoroughly and smartly. Our Handbook is divided into different sections keeping in mind the need for various exams. Presentation of the given Current Affairs has been planned meticulously. It has been planned in such a way that it remains in the minds of readers for a longer duration.

Our mission is to provide a safe, secure environment in which every student will acquire the skills and knowledge necessary to become accomplished, productive members of the ever-changing, global community. Our faculty is a very dedicated group of individuals who continue to focus on providing the best possible instruction for our students.

Once again, welcome to our community of shared principles and values. Wish you happy, healthy, and fruitful years ahead.

Looking forward to welcoming you to the Institute.

Birsa Munda

15 Nov 1875 – 9 Jun 1900

Was an Indian tribal freedom fighter, religious leader, and folk hero who belonged to the Munda tribe.

FACTS

He was the founder of a new religion called Birsait. The state of Jharkhand was created on Munda's birth anniversary to commemorate his contribution to the freedom struggle.

He not only fought the British, but also championed the rights of tribal people and helped abolish the feudal system that plagued the Adivasi lands in Jharkhand and Bihar.

The only tribal leader whose portrait hangs in the Central Hall of Indian Parliament as a mark of honour.

NOTE

Mahasweta Devi wrote a novel 'Aranyer Adhikar' on the life of Birsa Munda and his rebellion against British Raj. The novel won her the Sahitya Akademi Award for Bengali in 1979.

2023 Cricket World Cup

The 2023 ICC Men's Cricket World Cup was the 13th edition of the Cricket World Cup, contested by men's national teams and organised by the International Cricket Council (ICC). The tournament was hosted by India. It started on 5 October and concluded on 19 November 2023, with Australia winning the tournament. It was the first men's Cricket World Cup which India hosted solely. The tournament took place in ten different stadiums, in ten cities across the country. The top eight placed teams in the tournament's final points table qualified for the 2025 ICC Champions Trophy, the next ICC ODI tournament. Virat Kohli was the player of the tournament and also scored the most runs; Mohammed Shami was the leading wicket-taker. A total of 1,250,307 spectators attended matches, the highest number in any cricket World Cup to date.

Mascot

The ICC officially announced the mascots for the World Cup on August 19. The mascots are a male and female duo named "Tonk" and "Blaze" respectively from the fictional cricketing utopia called "Crictoverse". They embody the principle of gender equality.

Theme Song

The official theme song of the 2023 Cricket World Cup titled "Dil Jashn Bole" was released on 20 September. The song was composed by Pritam while lyrics were written by Shloke Lal and Saaveri Verma. The song was sung by Pritam, Nakash Aziz, Sreerama Chandra, Amit Mishra, Jonita Gandhi, Akasa Singh and S. P. Charan.

Broadcasting Rights

Star Sports were the host broadcaster, televising matches domestically with Disney+ Hotstar in English and eight regional languages. All matches were streamed domestically without the need for a subscription on mobile devices.

Prize money

The ICC allocated a pool of US$10 million in prize money for the tournament. Australia, the winning team, received US$4,000,000, the runner-up(India) $2,000,000 and the losing semi-finalists $1,600,000. Teams that did not progress past the league stage received $100,000 and the winner of each league stage match received $40,000.
